Identity Theft occurs when someone uses your personal identifying information, like your name, Social Security number, or credit card number, without your permission, to commit fraud or other crimes. It’s America’s fastest growing crime, victimizing about 12.7 million people in 2014.* Cigna’s Identity Theft program is available to help if this serious crime impacts you.

Valuable help before and after identity theft.
Our identity theft program provides tools and guidance to help with prevention, detection and resolution. This includes:
› Education on how to identify and avoid identity theft before it happens
› An identity theft protection kit that provides the right documents to use and steps to follow if your identity has been compromised
› Help to complete an identity theft affidavit and cancel lost credit cards
› Guidance to help you replace credit cards, a driver’s license, Social Security card, passport, etc.
› Assistance with understanding your credit reports to determine if identity theft has occurred, and help with reporting an identity theft to credit reporting agencies
› Help with emergencies while traveling, including translation services with local authorities, filing a police report, and emergency message relay
› Up to $1,000 cash advance if your wallet or purse is stolen when traveling more than 100 miles from home
