Tuition Exemption Benefit Checklist for Eligible Support Staff

- Confirm your eligibility and learn what’s covered for degree and non-degree courses per term:
  - Go to humanresources.columbia.edu and click on the CUBES logo. You will be asked to enter your UNI and password, and then confirm your access using multifactor authentication (DUO).
  - Once logged in, select “Tuition.” On the Tuition Programs page, under Within Columbia University, select “Tuition Exemption – for Yourself”.
  - The Tuition Exemption form is now fillable so you can complete online. Type in your name and today’s date; save form as a PDF; attach and submit to your school (email details below).

To receive Tuition Exemption for the fall, spring or summer terms, you must be eligible before the First Day of Classes, per the Academic Calendar (registrar.columbia.edu/calendar).

- Register for classes on Student Services Online (SSOL). For help with registration, visit the Registering for Classes and Appointment Times page. Once you have registered, your student account in SSOL will record the degree or non-degree course(s) information and the cost of tuition.

- Review tax implications and job-relatedness. If you are enrolled in graduate-level studies (Course Numbers 4000 and above) and using Tuition Exemption Benefits, you are exempt from taxation up to the federal limit of $5,250 in a calendar year. The value of Tuition Exemption Benefits for graduate-level courses over the federal limit of $5,250 in a calendar year is treated as taxable imputed income, and taxes will be withheld from your paycheck. The University will spread the tax liability of tuition exemption benefits for classes during the term pay periods.

- If your graduate studies are job-related, you may wish to review the IRS criteria to certify your studies are job related and eligible for tax exemption. For information on the Job-Related Graduate Education Certification Policy, forms and instructions, visit hr.columbia.edu/benefits/tuition/graduate-cert. Submit your completed Tuition Exemption Benefits form and Job-Related Graduate Education Certification form (if applicable) to Student Financial Services (SFS) only after you see charges on your student account. To have your Tuition Exemption Benefit or Reduced Employee Rate applied to your student account, your “Tuition Exemption – For Yourself” eligibility form must be completed, signed and submitted to SFS or Bursar’s Office on your campus:
