Energize your team with Salt and Pepper

What You’ll Need
- A pen
- Name tags or post-it notes

What You’ll Do
1. Come up with a list of well-known pairs such as peanut butter and jelly, salt and pepper, or fish and chips. Assign team members their own secret label from each pairing.
2. Write each secret label on a name tag or post-it and place it on each member’s back.
3. Your team will then ask each other yes or no questions in order to figure out their secret label. Through this they will find their pair.

What You’ll Gain
- Breaking the Ice
- Relationship Building

Check out https://humanresources.columbia.edu/learning-development for upcoming L&D offerings!