AGREEMENT made and entered into as of this 19th day of September 2025, by and between the TRUSTEES OF COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK, located at 116th Street and Broadway, New York, 10027, referred to as the "Employer" and 1199SEIU UNITED HEALTHCARE WORKERS EAST, with its offices at 310 West 43rd Street, New York, New York, 10036 (hereinafter referred to as the "Union"), acting herein on behalf of the Employees of the said employer as hereinafter defined, now employed and hereinafter to be employed and collectively designated as the "Employees".

W I T N E S S E T H

WHEREAS, the Employer recognizes the Union as the collective bargaining representative for the Employees covered by this agreement as hereinafter provided, and

WHEREAS, it is the intent and purpose of the parties hereto that this Agreement promote and improve the mutual interests of the Employer as well as those of its Employees and to avoid interruptions and interference with services and to set forth herein their agreement covering rates of pay, hours of work and conditions of employment.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, the parties hereto agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

RECOGNITION - THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING UNIT

1. (a) The Employer recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive collective bargaining representative of the Employees in the following bargaining units:

All office clerical employees of the Employer at the Morningside Heights Campus employed in the Libraries, CUIT, Central Mail Room, School of Social Work, the Controller's Office, and Procurement Services.

(b) Excluded from each of the aforesaid bargaining units are supervisory, confidential, executive and managerial employees, full-time students in degree granting programs at Columbia University (including Teachers College and Barnard College), part-time employees who work less than 10 hours per week, temporary employees as defined herein, and such other employees as are listed as excluded in the stipulations hereunto annexed.

A supervisory employee is any individual having authority in the interest of the Employer, to hire, transfer, suspend, lay off, recall, promote, discharge, assign, reward, or discipline other employees, or responsibly to direct them, or to adjust grievances, or effectively recommend such action, if not of a merely clerical nature, but requires the use of independent judgment.

(c) A temporary employee is one who is hired for a period of up to four (4) months and is so informed at the time of hire, and who is hired for a special project or to replace an Employee on leave or vacation. The said four (4) month period may be extended up to an additional two (2) months or for the length of maternity leave of the Employee being replaced, with the consent of the Union, which shall not be unreasonably withheld; however, such Employee shall become a member of the Union after the expiration of the initial four (4) month period. The University will notify the Union of temporary Employees who have been on the payroll of the University for four (4) months. The notification will include name, department, date of hire, the purpose of the hire and, if applicable, the name of the person being replaced. A copy will be sent to the Organizer and to the Delegate for the area concerned.

2. It is agreed that this contract shall apply and continue in full force and effect at any location to which the units may move. It is further agreed that this contract shall apply to any new or additional facilities of the units and under its principal direction and control within the five boroughs of New York City, Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester Counties.
3. Whenever the word "Employee" is used in the Agreement, it shall be deemed to mean the employees in the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement, as defined in Article 1, Section I hereof.
4. At the time a new Employee subject to this agreement is hired, the Employer shall deliver to said employee a written notice that the Employer recognizes and is in contractual relations with the Union and quoting or paraphrasing the provisions of Articles 2 and 3 of this Agreement.
5. Part-time Employees covered by this Agreement shall receive fringe benefits, seniority increments, wage rates and wage increases hereunder on a pro rata basis except for tuition privileges.
6. The University will have the option of participating in the Neutrality provisions of Attachment B of the settlement between the League of Voluntary Hospitals and Homes and the Union. The University will notify the Union in writing if it elects to participate.
7. With the express understanding that agency temporary employees are not University employees, the University agrees to provide the Union with quarterly reports listing the agency temporary employees supplied by the current or successor vendor responsible for providing temporary employees who have worked a minimum of 420 hours in a rolling year.

4. For the purposes of this Article, an Employee shall be considered a member of the Union in good standing if he/she tenders his/her periodic dues and initiation fee uniformly required as a condition of membership.
5. Subject to Article 31, an Employee who has failed to maintain membership in good standing as required by this Article, shall, within twenty (20) calendar days following receipt of a written demand from the Union requesting his/her discharge be discharged if, during such period, the required dues and initiation fee have not been tendered.
6. The Union agrees that it will indemnify and hold the Employer harmless from any recovery of damages sustained by reason of any action taken under this Article.

ARTICLE 3

CHECKOFF

1. Upon receipt of a written authorization from an Employee in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit "A", the Employer shall deduct from the wages due said Employee each month, starting not earlier than the first pay period following the completion of the Employee's first thirty (30) days of employment, and remit to the Union regular monthly dues and initiation fee, as fixed by the Union. The initiation fee shall be paid in two (2) consecutive monthly installments beginning the month following the completion of the probationary period.

2. Employees who do not sign written authorizations for deductions must adhere to the same payment procedure by making payments directly to the Union.
3. Upon receipt of a written authorization from an Employee in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit "B" the Employer shall, pursuant to such authorization, deduct from the wages due said Employee each pay period, starting not earlier than the first pay period following the completion of the employee's first thirty (30) days of employment, the sum specified in said authorization and remit same within two weeks to the 1199/SEIU Federal Credit Union to the credit or account of said Employee. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon the return of an Employee to work from any of the foregoing enumerated absences, the Employer will immediately resume the obligation of making said deductions, except that deductions for terminated Employees shall be governed by Section I hereof. This provision, however, shall not relieve any Employee of the obligation to make the required dues and initiation payment pursuant to the Union constitution in order to remain in good standing.
6. It is specifically agreed that the Employer assumes no obligation, financial or otherwise, arising out of the provisions of this Article, and the Union hereby agrees that it will indemnify and hold the Employer harmless from any claims, actions or proceedings by any Employee arising from deductions made by the Employer hereunder. Once the funds are remitted to the Union, their disposition thereafter shall be the sole and exclusive obligation and responsibility of the Union.
7. The Employer shall not be obligated to make dues deductions of any kind from any Employee who, during any dues month involved, shall have failed to receive sufficient wages to equal the due deductions.
8. Each month, the Employer shall remit to the Union all deductions for dues and initiation fees made from the wages of employees for the preceding month, together with a list of all Employees from whom dues and/or initiation fees have been deducted. The University will have the option of participating in the electronic dues transmission procedures agreed to between the League of Voluntary Hospitals and Homes and the Union. The University will notify the Union in writing if it elects to participate.

2. Neither the Employer nor the Union shall discriminate against any Employee because of physical and/or mental disabilities except where such disabilities would directly prevent the accomplishment of the stated job duties.
3. After notification to the Union, the Employer shall be permitted to take all actions legally required to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act.

ARTICLE 5

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

The Union and the University recognize the problem of sexual harassment in the workplace and are committed to ending it. 3. During or at the end of the probationary period, the Employer may discharge any such Employee at will and such discharge shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 9

SENIORITY

1. Definition

- (a) Bargaining unit seniority is defined as the length of time an Employee has been continuously employed in any capacity for the Employer.
- (b) Classification seniority shall be defined as the length of time an Employee has worked continuously in a specific job classification within a Department. A Department shall be defined as one of the following for purposes of this Article: Controller's Office, Library, CUIT, School of Social Work, and Central Mail Room as set forth in Article 1 of this Agreement.

2. Accrual

- (a) An Employee's seniority shall commence after the completion of his/her probationary period and shall be retroactive to the date of his/her last hire.
- (b) Bargaining unit seniority shall accrue during a continuous authorized leave of absence without pay up to six (6) months or for the period of parental/child care leave, provided that the Employee returns to work immediately following the expiration of such leave of absence ; during an authorized leave of absence with pay; during a period of continuous layoff not to exceed the lesser of (12) months or the length of an Employee's continuous employment, if the Employee is recalled into employment; and during a sick leave of up to six (6) months.
- (c) Classification seniority shall accrue during the periods specified in (b) above and during the time an Employee works in a specific job classification.
- (d) Where jobs in the same unit of any Department in the same title and grade are closely related, if operationally feasible the University will consider the most senior Employee for the assignment of new tasks.
- (e) Temporary Employees, as defined in Article 1, paragraph 1(b), shall have no seniority during the time they occupy the status of temporary Employees, but should any temporary Employee become a permanent Employee, then his/her seniority shall be retroactive to the date of employment, except as otherwise provided in Section 4(c) hereof.
- (f) An Employee who terminates voluntarily after five (5) years of continuous employment may return within one (1) year with no loss in seniority. Seniority credit shall not be given for time not employed.

3. Loss of Seniority

An Employee's seniority shall be lost when he/she:

- (a) Terminated voluntarily, except as provided for in Article 2(f) above.
- (b) Is discharged for cause.
- (c) Willfully exceeds an official leave of absence.
- (d) Is laid off for a period of twelve (12) consecutive months or a period exceeding the length of the Employee's continuous service, whichever is less.

4. Application

- (a) Bargaining unit seniority shall apply in the computation and determination of eligibility for all benefits where length of service is a factor pursuant to this Agreement.
- (b) Classification seniority shall apply in promotions, layoffs and recalls and for scheduling of vacations as herein provided.
- (c) Employees specifically covered by this Agreement, as set forth in the stipulations referred to in Article I, Section 1(a) whose pay is charged to a special or non-budgetary fund and who are informed at the time of their hire or at the time of transfer that their employment is for a special non-budgetary or research project and subject to this provision, shall, for the purposes of layoff, be considered to have classification seniority which may be exercised only within the project or grant to which assigned. Such Employees shall be considered to have bargaining unit seniority for purposes of transfer or recall to a vacant position outside of the special project, provided in each case that the Employer determines that the Employees retained or recalled have the ability to do the work.
- (d) Employees who have occupied a special or non-budgetary funded position for five (5) or more consecutive years will have the same layoff and recall rights as a regular Employee.

5. Layoff

- (a) In the event of a layoff within a job classification in one department, probationary Employees within that job classification in one department shall be laid off first without regard to their individual periods of employment. Non-probationary Employees shall be the next to be laid off on the basis of their bargaining unit seniority within the affected job classification within one department.

- (b) In the event an Employee is scheduled to be laid off in one department and there exists a vacant position in another department which the Employee has the skill and the ability to perform, bargaining unit seniority within the affected job classification shall prevail in assigning such Employees to be laid off to such vacant jobs. This provision is not intended to circumvent the article on promotions.
- (c) In the event a position is eliminated and the affected employee is not the least senior employee in his/her classification, such employee will be assigned to the position held by the least senior employee in the same classification and department, provided he/she has the skill and ability, work record and experience to perform the duties of the job. The least senior employee shall be laid off. In the event the employee originally scheduled to be laid off does not wish to exercise his/her rights to bump or take a vacancy which may be available, such employee shall be deemed to be laid off.
- (d) In the event that an employee is reassigned to either a vacant position or the position held by the least senior employee within the job classification and department, he/she shall serve an eight (8) week probationary period, during which he/she may be removed from the position and shall be laid off if his/her performance is not satisfactory in the opinion of Management, but such action will be subject to Article 31 of this Agreement (Grievance Procedure).
- (e) A non-probationary Employee shall not be laid off if, at the time of the prospective layoff, temporary work is available in the classification of the Employees scheduled to be laid off that the Employee is qualified to perform and the Employee accepts the assignment and schedule required of the temporary position. At the time of the layoff, it should be the Employee's option to accept such assignment or to exercise rights under the layoff and recall provision of this Article.
- (f) If the Employee accepts such assignment, the Employee is not laid off and remains an Employee with recall rights commencing from the effective date of layoff stated in the Notice Letter. At the end of the temporary assignment, if another temporary assignment, for which the employee is qualified, is not available the Employee will be laid off and receive severance pay equal to the difference between the weeks in the temporary assignment and the severance pay as outlined under Article 20 of the collective bargaining agreement, if any. In the event that a non-temporary position exists at the end of the temporary assignment the above recall procedures shall apply. This provision will not apply to probationary employees.
- (g) If a regular part-time Employee has greater equivalent seniority than a full-time Employee in the same classification who is to be laid off, the part-time Employee must be willing to accept full-time employment to continue working.

- (h) The Employer agrees to give the Employee to be laid off four (4) weeks notice of a layoff.

6. Recall

- (a) Whenever a vacancy occurs in a job classification, Employees who are on layoff in that classification shall be recalled in accordance with their classification seniority in the reverse order in which they were laid off. If a vacancy occurs in a job classification where no Employee in that classification has recall rights, then the laid-off Employee with the most bargaining unit seniority will be recalled if he/she has the ability to do the work and if not, the next senior Employee will be recalled, and so on.
- (b) Probationary Employees who have been laid off have no recall privileges.
- (c) An Employee who is recalled and assigned to a new position shall serve a probationary period of eight (8) weeks in such new position. If returned to layoff status during the probationary period, the period of active employment shall not be deemed to be time on layoff for recall purposes and the Employee shall retain the same seniority which he/she would have accrued if he/she had not been assigned to the new position. Such action will be subject to Article 31 and 32 of this Agreement.

7. Promotions

- (a) Whenever a promotional opportunity occurs in a department, the job opening shall be posted simultaneously for five (5) working days within and outside the department. Preference for such opening shall be given to the Employee within the department with the highest classification seniority, provided such Employee has the skill and ability to perform the required duties. If the Employer determines that the Employee with the highest classification seniority does not have the skill and ability to perform the required duties, preference shall then be given to the next Employee within the department with the highest classification seniority, again provided such Employee has the skill and ability to perform the required duties, and so on. If the opening is not filled from within the department, the above procedure shall be followed for filling the opening outside the department. When a job is posted and not filled, it shall be posted every sixty (60) days until filled. Any disagreement shall be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedure herein.
- (b) Whenever the University has a vacancy in a part-time position, the part-time hours will be offered first to part-time Employees on the basis of seniority. This will not supersede the seniority clause.
- (c) Job requirements shall reflect actual job duties of the job in question and be clearly stated. Equivalent experience shall be given due consideration.

- (d) All promotional tests to determine an Employee's skill and ability shall be job related and objective. Employees will not be required to take a typing test for promotions.
- (e) If an Employee claims that due to material changes in job content he/she should be upgraded, the Employee should submit a request, in writing, for such review to his/her immediate supervisor. The supervisor will meet with the Employee and review his/her job description. The Employee will be notified of the result of the review within forty five (45) days of the submission of the request.
- (f) At the time of hire, transfer or promotion, upon request, an Employee shall receive a copy of his/her current job description. Upon request, an Employee shall receive a copy of his/her current job description. This should be done within five days of the request.
- (g) An Employee who is promoted shall serve an eight (8) week probationary period on the new job. If he/she is removed from the new job during the probationary period he/she shall be returned to his/her former job or to an equivalent one without loss of seniority or other benefits, excepting that if he/she is discharged his/her rights shall be subject to Article 29 of this Agreement.
- (h) The University will continue to implement its plan to expand access to ColumbiaNet and to provide information and/or training which will assure that the Columbia community will have greater capability to use it. The University will provide information to employees on how to open and use non-supported E-mail accounts.

8. Lateral Transfers

- (a) There shall be no policy prohibiting lateral transfers. When a lateral transfer is applied for, that application shall be considered after application of those seeking promotions and shall be based on classification seniority.
- (b) An Employee who is laterally transferred shall serve an eight (8) week probationary period on the new job. If the Employee is removed from the new job during the probationary period he/she shall be returned to his/her former job or to an equivalent one without loss of seniority or other benefits.
- (c) Whenever job classifications are changed by management (as opposed to such changes as promotions and lateral transfers made at the Employee's request), employees affected by such changes shall retain the seniority of the previous job classification.

9. Seniority Roster

The University shall provide the Union with a current seniority roster. This shall be done on a yearly basis.

Must accept all offered temporary, casual or training assignments and must work the same number of hours per week as the employee worked prior to the layoff, for the duration of time provided in paragraph 3(a). Union Delegate or other representative within five (5) working days after the presentation of the grievance.

 - (a) Failure on the part of the Employer to answer a grievance at any step shall not be deemed acquiescence thereto, and the Union may proceed to the next step.
 - (b) Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, a grievance concerning a discharge or suspension may be presented initially at Step 3 in the first instance, within the time limit specified in Article 29, Section 3.
 - (c) Without waiving its statutory rights, a grievance on behalf of the Employer may be presented initially in Step 3 by notice in writing addressed to the Union at its offices.
 - (d) All the time limits herein specified shall be deemed to be exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and holidays.
3. Any disposition of a grievance from which no appeal is taken within the time limits specified herein shall be deemed resolved and shall not thereafter be considered subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 32

ARBITRATION

1. A grievance, as defined in Article 31, which has not been resolved thereunder may, within forty-five (45) working days after completion of Step 3 of the grievance procedure, be referred for arbitration by the Employer or the Union to an arbitrator selected in accordance with the procedures of the American Arbitration Association. EXHIBIT E

BENEFIT FUND IMPROVEMENTS

1. Mandatory Mail Order for Maintenance Prescription Drugs

This program requires active & retired members who use certain prescription drugs on a regular & long term basis to have those prescriptions filled, by mail, through the NBF pharmacy benefit manager, Advance PCS, Inc. This program will relieve some members of the need to constantly reorder the drug and to travel unnecessarily. It will help the NBF save resources by purchasing in bulk.

2. Full Formulary Program

The mandatory full formulary program will be administered through the NBF by its Pharmacy Benefit Manager Advance PCS, Inc. Among the programs are the following:

- i) Preferred Class. This program works like the NBF's mandatory generic program. If a member chooses a preferred drug, they will have no out-of-pocket expense. If they choose a non-preferred drug, they must pay the difference in cost.
- ii) Class Closure. The Cox 2 class of drugs includes two drugs: Vioxx and Celebrex which most doctors consider equally effective. The NBF will cover only Vioxx. Again, if a member fills a prescription with Celebrex, the pharmacy will contact the doctor to change the prescription to Vioxx. If the member chooses Celebrex, the member is responsible for the full cost of the prescription.
- iii) Class Elimination. The NBF is no longer providing drug benefits in the non-sedating anti-histamine class. This includes Claritin, Allegra, and Zyrtec. Members have available effective over-the-counter drugs, e.g. chlortrimetron.
- iv) Drug Elimination. Migraine medications which are in excess of FDA guidelines for strength, quantity and duration are eliminated.

In the above programs, the first concern of the NBF is the members' health and welfare. The three programs have been carefully designed to maximize this result. The intervention of a doctor may allow very limited exceptions.

3. Mandatory Medicare Risk HMO

A mandatory Medicare risk HMO for retirees (currently those in the Health First coverage area of Greater New York). The program will provide full hospital medical, drug, eyeglasses and a limited dental benefit. The effective date is April 1, 2002. The program will allow for hardship exemption. It is estimated that in the first year, twenty five percent of the retirees in the coverage area will remain with their current coverage.

The League and the Union will use their best efforts to add additional networks.

It is the intention of 1199 and the LVHH to maintain and improve the NBF's programs. These and other adjustments are needed to preserve the resources of the NBF to provide its comprehensive health coverage in the face of rising health care costs. The estimated savings from these three and other initiatives are approximately $20 million in fiscal year 2003; $24 million in fiscal year 2004; and $28 million in fiscal year 2005.

EXHIBIT F

CASUAL AND TEMPORARY ADJUSTMENTS

Notwithstanding the reason why a temporary or casual employee was hired, in the event that a temporary or casual employee as defined in Article 1 exceeds four months (measured as 560 hours in a rolling year) or the length of the leave being covered,¹ the following guidelines will be used to determine the person's status and entitlements:

Retroactive to initial date of hire or assignment:		CASUAL TEMPORARY EMPLOYEE	AGENCY TEMPORARY EMPLOYEE
IF THE DEPARTMENT DECIDES TO MAKE THE POSITION A REGULAR POSITION:	post position, apply, be interviewed, meet minimum qualifications, be selected	YES	YES
If hired into the same position on the Columbia payroll:
Salary		Retroactive adjustment if below minimum of position	No retroactive adjustment
Health benefits, pension, tuition exemption		Credit time but no retroactive benefits
Vacation, sick leave, personal days, holidays		Retroactive adjustment	Retroactive adjustment unless agency provided the benefit (no adjustment if agency provided less than Columbia provides; adjustment only if agency did not provide any level of benefit.)

5th month through 12th month $200 per month
13th month through 18th month $300 per month

The maximum payment will be $3400. Use and distribution for the penalty money shall be determined by the labor-management committee referenced in Article XXXVI.

Side Letter

KIOSKS

Hard copies of all 1199 job vacancies will be distributed to Dining, Catering and the Central Mail Room on a weekly basis for a six month period pending completion of training on the University's on-line job posting and employment application system for employees in these units.

The departments covered under the clerical contract (Libraries, CUIT Computer Center (now CUIT, Columbia University Information Technology Central Mail Room, School of Social Work, Controller's Office at 1700 Broadway and 330 Fifth Avenue), and the Cafeteria contract (Dining and Catering), will post job vacancies for their department in a central location once a week (Employees will be advised of the locations).

Re: Implementation of sick leave incentive plan

Dear Betty,

This will confirm our agreement that the following represent examples of how the new sick leave implementation plan will be implemented:

Current employees have sick leave based on their date of hire and usage during their current leave year. On their next anniversary date, they will receive additional sick leave, again based on their date of hire. In order to qualify for the incentive payments, employees must have a current balance plus the new year's accrual equal to 30 days as of the first day of the leave year. Then, any employee who begins the leave year with 30 days and uses less than a total of four (4) days of combined sick leave, workers compensation and/or disability in the year commencing on the anniversary date will qualify for a payment.

- Example 1: an employee hired on July 1, 1977 has 5 days left in his sick leave "bank". On July 1, 2014, he will have an additional 20 days credited to his bank, for a total of 25 days. On July 1, 2015, he will have up to another 20 days (depending on sick leave use, if any, to a maximum of 60 days) credited. Assuming that the total on July 1, 2015 equals at least 30 days, he will be eligible for the incentive beginning in the 2015-16 leave year.
- Example 2: an employee hired on April 5, 1992 had 30 days in her sick leave bank on April 5, 2015, when her new leave year was credited. She is immediately eligible for the incentive in the 2015-16 leave year.

New employees will continue to accrue 12 days per year minus any sick leave used, until they have 30 days accrued as of the start of the leave year. Then, any employee who begins the leave year with 30 days and uses less than a total of four (4) days of combined sick leave, workers compensation and/or disability in the year commencing on the anniversary date will qualify for a payment.

Employees may receive incentive payments in every leave year during which they meet the requirements set forth above.

Sincerely,

David M. Cohen

Re: Letter Agreement on Juneteenth

Dear Ms. Alleyne:

This sets forth our agreement regarding celebration of the Juneteenth holiday.

As discussed during the negotiations, the University has recognized Juneteenth as a day of observance in 2020, 2021, and 2022, and intends to continue observing Juneteenth going forward and will continue to provide the benefit to the 1199 represented employees. When the University adds Juneteenth to the official University calendar, it will simultaneously be added as an additional holiday in the collective bargaining agreement. If in the future during the term of the contract the day of observance is not offered, then employees will receive an additional personal day to use for the day of observance.

Sincerely,

Idina Gorman
Executive Director, Labor & Employee Relations
Columbia University
